Easter German.

The Tuesday German Club closed a most successful season of enjoyable dances last evening, when the Easter german was given in Masonic Temple.

The figures, which were unusually attractive, were led by Mr. Roy Jones, and the favors were delicious surprises in deference to the fact that Easter Monday was also April Fools' Day. An elegant supper was served at 12 o'clock.

Pretty Dance.

Pretty Dance.

Miss Eleanor Lindsey, who is at home from her school in Maryland for Easter, was the charming hostess at a dance given last evening in the Hermitage Golf Club.

Feathery peach, plum and apple blosa bower of beauty, making a fitting background for the fresh young faces and dainty gowns of the younger society set, who were Miss Lindsey's invited guests.

Miss Gay Lloyd, of Baltimore, Miss Lindsey's school-mate and house guest, was among the young laddes most admired and sought after.

Miss Lindsey was herself a most cordial and delightful little hostess, who contributed in every way to the pleasure of her guests.

Interesting Engagement.

Mrs. Simon Sycle has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Mabel Burrowsenla, to Mr. Irving J. Straus. The ceremony is announced to take place Wednesday, April 10th, in the home of the bride, No. 909 West Grace Street.

Fairies and Sprites.

One of the prettiest scenes in the operetta, "Red Riding Hood," to be presented to-morrow afternoon in Beividere Hall for the benefit of Sheltering Arms Free Hospital, shows a number of tiny girls attired as rainbow sprites, singing a charming little fairy song. Mrs. Fannie Thaw Grymes has done much to make the play a success, and has trained the little ones to perfection in the pretty dance, which accompanies the following som: We are fairles from fairyland happy and gay,

Our dresses are made of the moon's silver ray;
Our wings are of gauze lately washed by the dew.

And flash from their folds every bright rainbow hue.

we dance on the dewdrops and on
the lake's breast,

On the rainbow that curves o'er the waterfall's crest;
But forth rides the sun in his charlot on high.

me all the bright rainbow fairles

And home all the bright rainbow fairles must fly."

One of the most beautiful bits of music is the lullaby played to Red Riding Hood by little Miss Maria Adkins, a seven-year-old violinist. This pretty little musician is a pupil of Miss Annie Louis Reinhardt and inherits markes talent from her grandmother, Mrs. Lockerman, who was a favorite singer at Monumental Church some years ago.

A matinee performance on Wednesday and evening performances on Thursday and Friday give opportunity for all to attend. Rehearsals were held yesterday afternoon and evening.

At Woman's Club.

At Woman's Club.

At Woman's Club.

The "Claims of the University of Richmond" was the subject for consideration at Woman's, Club yesterday afterason, and Mr. John Stewart Bryan and Dr. S. C. Mitchell, addressed a large audience in behalf of the proposed amalgamation of colleges.

Mr. Bryan spoke of the obvious need for such an institution and emphasized the advantages that would accrue to the colleges and the State alike, Dr. Mitchell presented practical pians glying a resume of the extent and scope of the overk as already planned. An appeal was made to the members of the club to Identify themselves with the Woman's Auxiliary of the University.

The Easter Monday reception was unusually brilliant, a large number of visitors being present. Mrs. John II. Southall poured ica and Mrs. Cadwallader Iredell served cofree.

The reception rooms of the club hay undergone complete renovation. Pale buff brocade hangings throughout add much to the roomy, airy effects of the pariors, and Easter Rowers in tail

Day gilmmers on the dying and the dead, The cloven culrass, and the helmless head Day gilmmers on the dying and the dead,
The cloven culrass, and the helmiess head;
The war-horse masterless is on the earth,
And that last gasp hath burst his bloody girth;
And near, yet quivering with what life remained,
And some too near that rolling torront lie.'
Whose waters mock the lip of those that die;
That panting thirst which scorehes in the breath
Of those that die the soldler's fiery death,
In vain impols the burning mouth to crave
One drop—the last—to cool it for the grave;
With feeble and convulsive effort swept
Their limbs along the crimsoned turf have crept;
The faint remains of life such struggles waste,
But yet they reach the stream, and bend to taste:
They feel its freshness, and almost parfake—
Why pause?—no further thirst have they to slake—
It is unquenched, and yet they feel it not;
Il was an agony—but now forget!

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of blue silk, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of roses. The brother of the groom was best man.

Mr. Eberhard is a prosperous young farmer of Meadow Station, and his pretty bride is one of Henrico's most popular young ladies.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents, followed the marriage. Over one hundred guests, and many costly and useful presents attested the popularity of the newly-wedded pair.

Some of those from a distance were Misses Taylor, Katie and Annie Dunford, Annie Minor, Evelyn Shirk, Addia and Grace Madison; Mesdames F. T. and W. M. Dunford.

The payment on the first instalment of the pledges has encouraged the committee. The collectors will start out between the 5th and 10th of April. Richmond has made a wonderful record. They are still talking about it all over the United States. Only yesterday the general secretary heard of an incident where a Richmond traveling man had gone in to sell goods about five hundred miles from Richmond. This man had not yet got over his cathusiasm, and the minute he mentioned Richmond, it was natural to tell what had occurred, and he was informed that the merchant to whom he was trying to sell the goods had already learned what had happened, and was willing to admit that it was a great record. a great record

Strong Talk to Men.

Notwithstanding the exceptionally bad weather of Sunday afternon, there was an audience of almost two hundred at the men's meeting, conducted under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the First Baptist Church. The "special music" falled to materialize. Notwithstanding this, the men enjoyed the song service, as they always do. Rev. H. H. Hulten, of Charlotte, N. C., gave one of the strongest talks to men that has ever been heard in Richmond. Fully a dozen men expressed an earnest desire for the better life, three definitely deciding the question.

The big meeting next Sunday will again be held at the First Baptist Church, through the courtesy of Rev. Dr. Geo. W. McDaniel, and will be addressed by Prot. W. M. Forrest, of the University of Virginia. Mr. C. C. Kent, secretary of the Clifton Forge Association, writes that Prof. Forrest's address to the men there was one of the strongest he has ever listened to. His theme will be "What Claim Has Christianity Upon Me?"

HIS CONTEMPT FOR WHITE CRAP-PLAYER

Justice John departed from his usual custom in a case of crap-shooting in the Police Court yesterday morning. When it was shown that James Curry, a white man, had been playing the game with a lot of negroes, he was assessed $10, while the negroes paid the usual $2.50. The justice expressed his contempt for a white man who played with negroes.
